

If the Sinclair Broadcast Group does air their Anti-Kerry Documentary they should be required to air an equal time response by the Kerry Campaign. These are the public's airways that the Sinclair Broadcast Group uses and this "documentary" is clearly meant to influence the elections. The Kerry Campaign should have the right to respond in their own way, not one dictated by Sinclair.